FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – November 11, 2011

Winners of the 2011 Lisle Park District Parks Photo Contest Announced

Lisle, IL – The Lisle Park District announced the winners of the 2011 Parks Photo Contest at the regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners last night. The award for first place was presented to Kevin Mayer, Lisle resident, for his photograph of the north side of Community Park taken on a beautiful sunny day. Kevin’s winning photograph will hang in the newly renovated lobby of the Recreation Center. The second place photograph was taken by Lisle resident Stork Hsu and features a blooming Bradford Pear tree at Arborview Park. Third place was awarded to Patrycja Drozd, a Lisle resident, for her photo entitled “Trying to Stay Warm” featuring a child bundled up on the sled hill at Community Park. All three photos will be published in the Winter/Spring 2012 brochure, scheduled to be delivered to Lisle residents on Thursday, December 1, 2011. The criteria for the contest requires photographs to feature Lisle Park District parks, facilities, events or programs. Submissions for the 2012 Parks Photo Contest will be accepted now through October 1, 2012. For contest rules and additional information please visit www.LisleParkDistrict.org/photocontest.
