

Lisle Park District Volunteer Waiver and Release

Important Information

The Lisle Park District is committed to conducting its recreation programs and activities in a safe manner and holds the safety of volunteers in high regard. The Park District continually strives to reduce such risks and asks that all volunteers follow safety rules and instructions that are designed to protect the volunteers' safety. However, volunteers must recognize that there is an inherent risk of injury when choosing to volunteer for any recreational activity or program.

Please recognize that the Park District carries only limited medical accident coverage for volunteers; therefore, it is strongly urged that all volunteers review their own health insurance policy for coverage. Additionally, each volunteer is solely responsible for determining if he/she is physically fit and/or properly skilled for any volunteer activity. It is always advisable, especially if the volunteer is pregnant, disabled in any way or recently suffered an illness or injury that one consult with a physician before undertaking any physical activity.

Warning of Risk

Despite careful and proper preparation, instructor, medical advice, conditioning and equipment, there still is a risk of serious injury when participating in any recreational activity/program. Understandably, not all hazards and dangers can be foreseen. Volunteers must understand that depending on the activity, certain risks, dangers and injuries due to acts of God, inclement weather, slipping, falling, inadequate or defective equipment, failure in supervision or instruction, premises defects, horseplay, carelessness, lack of skill or technique, and all other circumstances inherent to recreational activities/programs exist. In this regard, it must be recognized that it is impossible for the Park District to guarantee absolute safety.

As a volunteer, I recognize and acknowledge that there are certain risks of physical injury to volunteers in the program/activity, and I voluntarily agree to assume the full risk of any and all injuries, damages of loss, regardless of severity, that I may sustain as a result of participation. I further agree to waive and relinquish all claims I may have as a result of volunteering in this program/activity against the Park District, including its officers, officials, agency volunteers and employees (hereinafter collectively referred as "Parties").
